

The 'C' word

Community, of course!

community

/kə'mju:nɪti/

noun

the people living in one particular area or people who are considered as a unit because of their common interests, social group, or nationality

The faces in our places

A photograph showing several hands of different skin tones reaching up from the bottom and sides to form a heart shape. The background is a bright blue sky with soft, white clouds. The lighting is warm and natural, suggesting an outdoor setting.

"Community is much more than belonging to something: it's about doing something together that makes belonging matter"

Brian Solis

“I don't know how I'm going to put dinner on the table tonight”

“I don't know how I'm going to put dinner on the table tonight”

“I feel lonely, I haven't spoken to anyone since last week”

“I don't know how I'm going to put dinner on the table tonight”

“I feel lonely, I haven't spoken to anyone since last week”

“I'm really struggling to find a new job”

“I don’t know how I’m going to put dinner on the table tonight”

“I feel lonely, I haven’t spoken to anyone since last week”

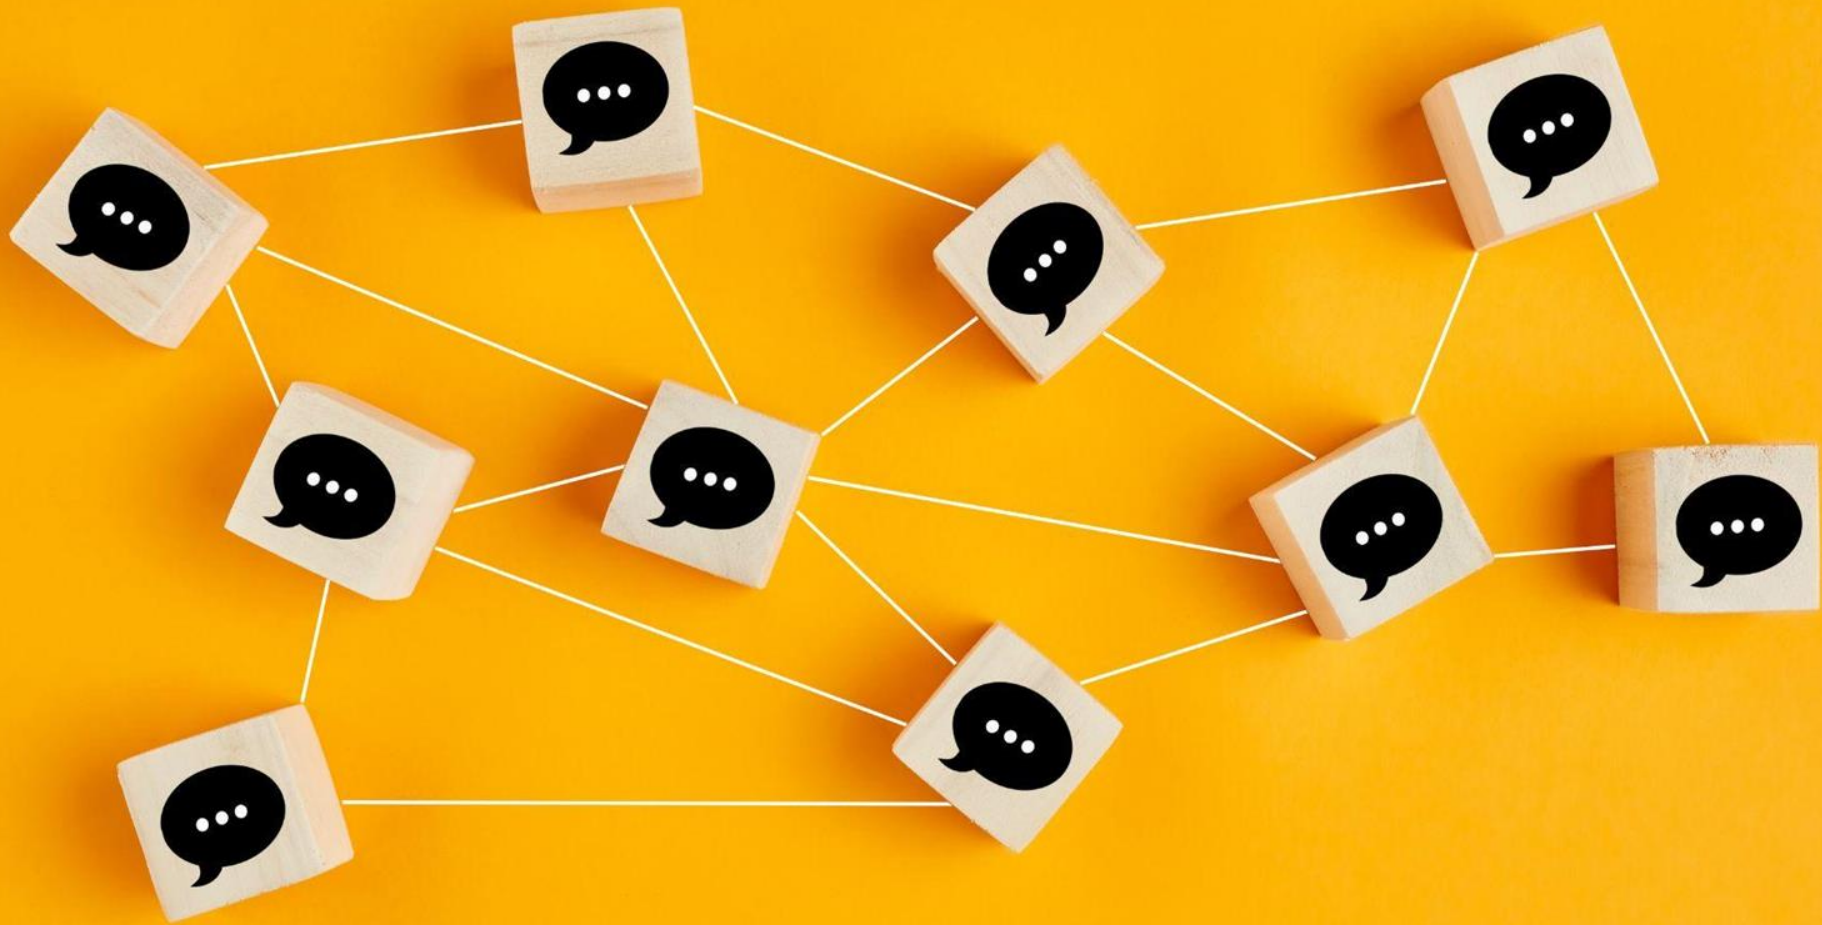

“I’m really struggling to find a new job”

“How am I going to entertain the kids for 6 weeks”

We're better together!

“When you buy local,
you are supporting your community, keeping the money
where the most effective change can be seen.”

Forbes survey

- Number of smiles seen
- Number of laughs heard
- Number of ideas generated
- Number of conversations had
- Number of positive impacts
- Number of memories made
- Number of reviews received
- Number of senses stimulated
- Number of surprises
- Number of delights

A sense of community brings people a sense of belonging. Whether it's where you live, work, or play, everybody needs to be part of a community.

